ABOUT

Fernand Frimpong Jnr is an award winning presenter. Known for anchoring hit music entertainment afrobeats TV show THL on international TV network VoxAfrica, and creator of his webseries Fernand's Four Minutes On A Friday, he also works in youth engagement hosting national anti-social behaviour campaign 'IS IT WORTH IT?' on behalf of Police Forces across the UK. His varied and exciting experience has seen him interview the likes of Trevor Nelson, actor Joseph Marcell, Trevor McDonald, DJ Trevor Nelson, Rough Copy, Fuse ODG, CEO Dancers of Britain's Got Talent fame, amongst others. He has quickly risen up the ranks as a promising young presenter, fronting Screen Nation Awards 2013 & 2014 coverage and to a global audience for the University of Sussex Informatics Open Day in 2010. His energy and charisma saw him win Best Presenter at BEFFTA (Black Entertainment Film Fashion Television and Arts) Awards 2012. His skills don't end there: graduating from the prestigious BBC Production Trainee Scheme in 2016 ensures he has a strong position both in front and behind the camera.
